Community Recreation

Monday Night Fever

This new bowling league takes place for 10 weeks at Holiday Bowl. Each session includes three games and shoe rental. Teams will consist of three players per team with an awards banquet at the end of the year. Call to register your team.

Holiday Bowl, 11400 Jefferson Davis Highway

Mondays, June 7-Aug. 9, 8:30 p.m. $12 per week

Details: Mark Pinney, 748-1992

By the Sea 🞹

Come out and paint a beautiful lighthouse-by-the-sea scene on a mason jar. All supplies are included in this class, which is taught by Bobbi Whitlock.

Central Library, Lori Road

Friday, July 16, 10:30 a.m-2 p.m. $25 Course #9790

Details: Mark Pinney, 748-1992

Athletes in Motion (AIM USA)

Athletes in Motion is a cosponsored organization dedicated to providing affordable, quality programs for youths 4-15 years old. Certified black belt instructors teach this self-defense program with an emphasis on safety awareness. Cheerleading prep teaches youths cheers, chants, gymnastics and partner stunts. Weekly classes will take place throughout the county until the end of school year.

Details: Jim or Susan Johnson, 323-5985

Chesterfield Community Band

The cosponsored Chesterfield Community Band plays fine concert music for county residents. This 40-piece, all volunteer band includes a mix of people and professions and welcomes musicians 16 years old and older. If you are interested in becoming a member of this group, call for more information or visit our Web site at www.ccband.org.

The Brandermill Church, 4500 Millridge Parkway Mondays, 7-9 p.m.

Details: Bobby Coghill, 213-9118

Chesterfield County Choral Society

This cosponsored group is seeking new members to become a part of their musical organization. The Chesterfield County Choral Society performs for a variety of area musical events, including Pocahontas Performances and Parade of Lights. No audition required; people of all skill levels welcome. Minimum age is 16. New Covenant Presbyterian Church, 6415 Irongate Drive Tuesdays, 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Details: Richard Ferramosca, 639-2540

Registration begins Monday, April 26, 2004. See page 31 for details.

Virginia Boat Club

This cosponsored group provides recreational and competitive rowing to the community and high-school students. Eight-man and four-man sweep rowing instruction.

Details: Henry Holswade, 320-2984

Fencing

Join the Chester Knights Fencing Club. Experienced instructor Karl Przystawik teaches lessons. Several students have won state and national awards. Continuous classes until end of school year. Minimum age is 8.

Salem Church Middle School, 9700 Salem Church Road Mondays, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Details: Karl Przystawik, 275-0539

Bushkin-Kan, Inc.

Improve your fitness level, coordination and confidence. Students will learn self-defense while increasing their stamina, flexibility and coordination. This ongoing program teaches skills in conflict management and selfdiscipline while promoting personal responsibility and a "can-do" attitude. Classes, which follow classical martial arts methods and structure, are for those 10 years old and older. Registration and payment are made on-site. New students a re welcome.

Falling Creek Elementary School, 4800 Hopkins Road Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 6:30-8:30 p.m. Details: Barry Edelman, 310-2811 or www.bushin-kan.org

Baton Twirling

Learn the skill of baton twirling and make new friends while benefiting from physical fitness and exercise. Recreational and competitive baton twirling for youths, 5-18 years old. Beginner through advanced levels will be taught. Training is available for parades, high-school majorettes teams, or competitive solos.

Florettes Majorettes Details: Flo Malek, 672-6105 Royalettes Baton Corps Details: Diane Gunnels, 231-6143

Ballroom Dancing

Beginner and experienced dance couples can learn new steps and meet new friends at the Sophisticats Ballroom Dance Club as they "trip the night fantastic" on the second Friday of each month at Robious Elementary School. Details: Shirley K. Callahan, 320-2882

Check out our Web site at chesterfield.gov